I'm not asking for forever and I don't need much of your time
I know we can't be together but you should know I'm on your side
It's where I'll always be

It's alright for you to be scared
I'll drive all night
I'll go anywhere
If someday our stars don't align
We'll go our own ways
You should know I'm always on your side

Could I have treated you better Something else I could have tried I don't have to be the one you dream about but you should know I'm on your side It's where I've always been

I don't know where you are but I know where you've been You're just a small town girl you didn't care about nothing

I don't know where to start but I hope that it ends up with you being happy wherever you are forever

your time

It's alright for you to be scared
I'll drive all night
I'll go anywhere
If someday our stars don't align
We'll go our own ways
You should know it's always

It's alright for you to be scared
I'll stay up all night
I won't go anywhere
If someday our stars don't align

We'll go our own ways
You should know I'm always on your side
You should know I'm always on your side
