You're Leaving me here and I want you to Know that I
I wanted you there you were the best thing in my life
Somehow I know someone is on the other side
You're turning me over, letting you look on deep inside

Cellophane girl, playing a part in a cellophane world
Cellophane girl, see through me, see through me

Hello there girl, you leave a sweet taste in my mouth
On the edge of the world
She'd rather jump than just look down
You're Taking me under, you're leaving me dry
We're coming up with lies and lies, and lies and

Cellophane girl, playing a part in a cellophane world
Cellophane girl, see through me, see through me
See through me, see through me

Leaving me here, I want you to know that
I wanted you there, you were the best thing in my life
Somehow I know someone is on the other side
You're turning me over, I'm letting you look deep inside

Cellophane girl, playing a part in a cellophane world
Cellophane girl, see through me, see through me
See through me, see through me
