Where there's love, there is pain
With the sun comes the rain
Without wrong there'd be no right
Every day begins with night

In a crowd we're all alone
Said out loud on telephones
When you give me a hand
With no words I understand

You got no one to run to
You got no one to find you

Stars will explode
Mountains erode
Oceans overflow
Let it go

Now, yesterday
Was too far away
It's the end of the road
Let it go

I found love when there was pain
I felt the sun in pouring rain
Wish all my wrongs I could do right
I wish that you were here tonight

You got no one to run to
You got no one to find you

Stars will explode
Mountains erode
Oceans overflow
Let it go

Now, yesterday
Was too far away
It's the end of the road
Let it go

Stars will explode

Mountains erode
Oceans overflow
Let it go

Now, yesterday
Was too far away
It's the end of the road
Let it go

Let it go

Where there's love, there is pain
With the sun comes the rain
Without wrong there'd be no right
Every day begins with night
In a crowd we're all alone
Said out loud on telephones
