I'm not asking for forever
And I don't need much of your time
And I know we can't be together
You should know I'm on your side
I swear I'll always be

It's alright for you to be scared
I'll drive all night or go anywhere
If someday, the stars don't align
We'll go our own ways
But you should know I'm always on your side

I could have treated you better
Something else I could've tried
And I don't have to be the one you dream about
Well you should know I'm on your side
I swear I've always been

It's alright for you to be scared
I'll drive all night or go anywhere
If someday, the stars don't align
We'll go our own ways
But you should know I'm always on your side, oh

And I don't know where you are
But I know where you've been
You're just a small town girl
You're trying to kill her, not fair

And I don't know where it started
But I hope that it ends up
In you being happy
Wherever you are, forever

I'm not asking for forever
And I don't need much of your time

It's alright for you to be scared
I'll drive all night or go anywhere
If someday the stars don't align
We'll go our own ways
Yeah, yes you know it's always

It's alright for you to be scared
I'll stay up all night and won't go anywhere
If someday the stars don't align
Go our own ways
And yes, you know I'm always on your side
Yes, you know I'm always on your side
