The radio

Whatever breaks my heart
All that you can't say
You seem to find a way

Whatever makes me cry
And everything you do
Takes a piece of me with you

Round and round
You're spinning me
Won't the sound just let me be

The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
And why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye?

The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
And why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye?

Whatever breaks my heart
All that you can't say
You seem to find a way

Whatever makes me cry
And everything you do
Takes a part of me with you

Round and round
You're spinning me
Kill the sound just let me be

The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
And why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye?

The radio won't let me be

It's playing all our melodies
And why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye? Oh, yeah, oh

The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
Why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye?

The radio is killing me
Singing all my memories
And why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye?

The radio won't let me be
It's playing all our melodies
And why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye?

The radio

And why did we say goodbye?
And why did we say goodbye?
