Livin is so hard
It grinds you down right from the start
So you better count your friends,
On a single hand
Not judging and not budging from your side
Always staying with you for the ride

Dyin' is so hard
To say goodbye to those you love
So I wanna thank you girl,
For the things you've done
Your secrets will be safe when you are gone
Cause you know I ain't telling anyone

I could take you home
Make sure you're not alone
When your dreams of hope, are gone
I will understand
If we could just hold hands
And turn our faces to the sun

Livin is so hard
It grinds you down right from the start
So you better count your friends,
On a single hand
Not judging and not budging from your side
Always staying with you for the ride
