Silver killers rain from above
Come to waste the land and kill your love
Get to know about the truth
Say goodbye the future has no you

Wasted people in a wasted world
An empty promise and a flower girl
Didn't know about the truth
Didn't know how it could get to you

Life is nothing new, your love of God won't help you
Kiss the kids and pray the whole night through
Slide into the dark, it's taking shape around you
Pretty soon it's all that you will know
[repeat]
