E asus4 a 4 times

E asus4 a e asus4 a

We wake up every morning rush downstairs to the car

E asus4 a e asus4 a

Jump inside it with mummy her eyes are shining like stars

E asus4 a e asus4 a

The sun's like something that God sent the air's as fresh as our clothes

E asus4 a e asus4 a

We're going to the golden arches our life's so perfect it glows

E esus4 e esus4

And everything's fine everything's fine

Chorus

E a asus4 a

Daddy's a postman daddy's a postman

E a asus4 a

Daddy's a postman daddy's a postman (repeat intro)

B a

When we are old we won't have poverty or destitution

B a e

We will be able to afford a nursing home or an institution

E asus4 a

And daddy's a postman (3 times)

E asus4 a e asus4 a

Black skin white picket fences jewels we bought for a dime

E asus4 a e asus4 a

When I came to my senses the golden arches were mine

E esus4 e esus4

And everything's fine everything's fine

Chorus

E a asus4 a

Daddy's a postman daddy's a postman /pre>
