Chorus cycle on am dm dm7 dm

You got the world right where you want it

Where do you want where do you want the world?

You got the girl right where you want her

But where do you want where do you want the girl?

I pulled up at your door and turned the key once more

Took a calculator from my pocket

Checked a picture of us in a locket

I knew you were not in an alarm began to ring

Punched a number on a cordless phone

Made an offer on a dockland's condominium home

Somewhere with no soul that won't remind me

Chorus instrumental verse repeat chorus (long instrumental noodle)
