They kicked your teeth for pleasure's sake
You hope to die efore you wake
And I had a dream that I would take you away

Chorus

And I'd like to free you
And I won't decieve you

The rain is falling,
Pain is scalding you, you...

Can you believe in any good
When you've been hurt and misunderstood
With no such thing as the "goodness of men"
To redeem myself from others' sin

Chorus

Can you believe in any good (no)
When you've been hurt and misunderstood (no)
With no such thing as the "goodness of men" (no)
Redeem myself from others' sin (no)

Chorus
