Solution

Dignity has no face

Collusion

I am, fallen from grace

Time is my tragedy or victory

All deserted in pride

In existence cloud my delight

My somber emblem and the agony field

"As depression pierces my heart,

My end is here

I climb the mountain high,

Because shear-drop calls there"

I feel no fucking guilt

Look at the temple I have built

Prudence falls, but I was never here

Last breath upon the ledge

Goodbye and fuck you

I did never regard the edge

I fly away without wings...
