"Shine For Me"

Visit "Shine For Me" on MotoLyrics.com

You're sweet
And you're young
And you caught yourself
A place in the sun
You blow me away
With your confidence
And I'm ready to surrender now
Come shine for me
While I'm slowly losing touch
I'm restlessly waiting for the rush
Well you're young and free
But that's not nearly enough
Come shine for me
Were lost and found
With wild expectations now
We carry so much weight upon
Our shoulders just to feel alive
Come shine for me
While I'm slowly losing touch
I'm restlessly waiting for the rush
Well you're young and free
But that's not nearly enough
Come shine for me
Were waltzing through the night
But you keep pushing me aside
And you're telling me sweet little lies
As I fall into the stillness of your eyes
Come shine for me
While I'm slowly losing touch
I'm restlessly waiting for the rush
Well you're young and free
But that's not nearly enough
Come shine for me
