Here it comes, the broken night
Something in your eyes says it's alright
Tempted by the promise of
The distance in your eyes
I guess I'm alright

And I will try to steer
Through your pool of tears
My friends are outside and I don't know you well

It's midnight and the lights are out
You can steal my crown
And walk right through this town
A broken kiss fell from your lips
I caught it just before it hit the floor

And I will try to steer
Through your pool of tears
My friends are outside and I don't know you well

December came and it hit you hard in the face
You say we're kids, we got nothing to say
The stones you threw were never meant to stay
The hits you took didn't bruise your face

And I will try to steer
Through your pool of tears
What is yours will be yours
What is mine will be lost in time
Don't change a thing
Your picture's gonna look just fine
I wish I knew you but I don't know you well
I wish I knew you but I don't know you well
