You went up and I went down
And left an empty ground
You just smiled and I frowned
Look at us now
I don't mind
If you leave me here
I don't mind
If you leave me here
You pulled up and I pulled out
I always seem to miss you somehow
I can't tell you what it's all about
I just don't remember now
I don't mind
I you leave me here
I don't mind
If you leave me haning here
Running like a fool
If you keep me waiting here
Cause you got better things to do
Just give me a reason

For all these wasted tears
Cause we know this is not an end
I went up and you went down
I can't tell you what it's all about
Cause I'm still trying to figure it out
I don't mind
I you leave me here
I don't mind
If you leave me haning here
Running like a fool
If you keep me waiting here
Cause you got better things to do
Just give me a reason
For all these wasted tears
This is not an end
This is not an end
This is not the end
