

Grand Funk Railroad "I Don't Have To Sing The Blues"

Visit "I Don't Have To Sing The Blues" on MotoLyrics.com

I've got this good lookin' woman back home
Let me tell y'all
She cooks good and she looks good
And she just can't do no wrong

She cooks me cornbread in the morning
She's my dinner and my midnight snack
She sits up and she begs
And she even rolls over on her back

Please don't tell me that's the way that it goes
'Cause I've tried hard and I know
I ain't been playin' in your back yard
'Cause I got my baby and she love me so

She don't treat me mean
And she loves my machine, yeah
I digs her 'cause she's funky
And she sure keeps it clean now

I'm a loafer, she's my chauffeur

And she sure likes to drive me
I lay my life on the line
And she steps up right beside me, yeah

Please don't tell me that's the way that it goes
'Cause I've tried hard and I know
I ain't been playin' in your back yard
'Cause I got my baby and she love me so

I don't have to sing the blues no more
A girl like mine is hard to find for sure
She lays it on me each and every night
She's my pleasure and my world's delight

I don't have to sing the blues no more
A girl like mine is hard to find for sure
She lays it on me each and every night
She's my pleasure and my world's delight

