"So Far Away"

I stopped breathing upon the day that I met you, I met you
I'm the dog who devoured his leash when he left you,
he left you Broke my sunshine and froze my streams 'cause I let you, I let you

So far away, so far...

So far away from you
Away from all the things that you do
I'm lonely just like you
This feels like forever but loneliness is better than you

Upside down, turning inside out, I'm inside you, inside
you
Walk the tightrope above my hive, I'm behind you, behind you
Filled me up with your bitter cup 'cause I liked it, I liked it
Turn your winter into my blizzard, we like it, we like it

So far away from you
Away from all the things that you do
I'm lonely just like you
This feels like forever but loneliness is better than you
I'm riding so far away from you Away from all the damage you do
I'm lonely just like you
This feels like forever but loneliness is better than you

Turn, turn, turn away from you.
Burn, burn everything to do with you High, away where I let you fly Away where the feelings die Away where you can't deny so I just pass you by

I stopped breathing upon that day that I met you, I met
you
I'm the dog who devoured his leash when he left you,
he left you
