So come on over feel His Grace shining bright
It's not over you still need to fight
You say that it can't be done
You just can't live what's right
Well that's not right
He will heal you tonight

You say that you love Him with your life
But your going your own way
You need to let Him have your rights
Let Him take control of your life
He'll set you free, Tonight, yea yea tonight

Some come on over let His love draw you near
It's not over He wipe away every tear
You say that it can't be done
You just can't live what's right
Well that's not right
He will heal you tonight
You say that you love Him with your life
But your going your own way
You need to let Him have your rights
Let Him take control of your life
He'll set you free, Tonight, yea yea tonight

Oh how He loves You- How He longs to forgive You
Won't you let Him take your hand
Won't you let Him show you His Plan
He will change you, He will change you, He will change
you
You say that you love Him with your life
But your going your own way
You need to let Him have your rights
Let Him take control of your life
He'll set you free, Tonight, yea yea tonight
