Hold me now
Feel your arms around me
Realize it's just another dream about
You and me forever, Whoa

I'm lookin' but cannot find
Whatever I do can't seem to get you out of my mind

And if I hold your hand
And if I walk you through
Will you understand me?, When I tell it to you
If I make it clear, if I make you see
Is it too much to ask for you
Just to acknowledge me?

See my eyes flowin' like the ocean
I feel so alive, but now I'm fallin', Whoa

And feelings I just can't hide
Memories lost you seem to have left me far behind

I can go where no one hides
I can look where no one finds
Memories lost inside my head
I can be what no one is
Find out hers and find out his
Catch me now, catch me now
I'm fallin'
