Grown-Up Christmas List

By David Foster and

Linda Thompson Jenner

Sung By Amy Grant

Do you remember me?

I sat upon your knee;

I wrote to you

With childhood fantasies.

Well, I'm all grown-up now,

And still need help somehow.

I'm not a child,

But my heart still can dream.

So here's my lifelong wish,

My grown-up Christmas list.

Not for myself,

But for a world in need.

No more lives torn apart,

That wars would never start,

And time would heal all hearts.

And everyone would have a friend,

And right would always win,

And love would never end.

This is my grown-up Christmas list.

As children we believed

The grandest sight to see

Was something lovely

Wrapped beneath our tree.

Well Heaven surely knows

That packages and bows

Can never heal

A hurting human soul.

No more lives torn apart,

That wars would never start,

And time would heal all hearts.

And everyone would have a friend,

And right would always win,

And love would never end.

This is my grown-up Christmas list.

What is this illusion called the innocence of youth?

Maybe only in our blind belief can we ever find the truth.

No more lives torn apart,
That wars would never start,
And time would heal all hearts.
And everyone would have a friend,
And right would always win,
And love would never end, oh.
This is my grown-up Christmas list.
This is my grown-up Christmas list.
