Casanova broke ya
Just like china
He was smooth as southern Blue Bell Cream
'Cept he never meant to share that diamond ring

So you take up to the roof-top, pining
Aim to touch the moon a' golden white
Lord, the air is damp, the stars are teary eyed

Here's a little secret, love
Everybody comes undone
Here's a dirty secret Darlin'
Everyone

From the ballroom you can hear them laughing
Pretty maidens and your own Don Jaun
And ya tell yourself
They'll miss you when you're gone

Here's a little secret, love
Everybody comes undone

Here's a dirty secret Darlin'
Everyone

Cross yourself, by Jesus
Now your head is all a blur
Questions don't come easier
Answers, they get longer

Here's a little secret, love
Everybody comes undone
Here's a dirty secret Darlin'
Everyone

Here's a little secret, love
Everybody comes undone
Here's a dirty secret Darlin'
Everyone
