For all this time
I thought that you,
Were moving forward and pushing through.
But then I finally realized,
Sometimes Intentions can be disguised.
Stay for a while.
I can't tell you,
If you've been wasting,
Your life on what you've been chasing.
Theirs got to be something,
To hold on to.
Time is short,
Don't let it break you. x2

For all these years,
You've been the same.
No voice for Love,
No voice for Pain.
Cause Apathy is like a spell,
That keeps you locked inside a shell.

Stay for a while.
I can't tell you,
If you've been wasting,
Your life on what you've been chasing.
Theirs got to be something,
To hold on to.
Time is short,
Don't let it break you. x2

A drop of blood, for every callus, sinners soul.
Forgetting what was paid in full. X2

I can't tell you,
If you've been wasting,
Your life on what you've been chasing.
Theirs got to be something,
To hold on to.
Time is short,
Don't let it break you. x2
