Verse 1

Hey Little Bird.

I took some sand from the ocean,
To cover my emotions.

When the tide came to high, It swept me over, under ocean skies.

And everyday were wondering, is this change or just routine?

Ohh routine.

Chorus

So live your life in the moment.

And live your days like you dreams.

Cause time is gone in a moment.

A moment, it seams.

Verse 2

Hey Big Bear.

Did you get smaller?

Or did my lies get taller?

Cause I tried to find what was left,
Within the walls of brokenness.

And it took me years to construct a list
Of all the grace you gave and what I've done with it.
What have I done with it?

Chorus

So live your life in the moment.

And live your days like you dreams.

Cause time is gone in a moment.

A moment, it seams.

Solo

Chorus

So live your life in the moment.

And live your days like you dreams.

Cause time is gone in a moment.

A moment, it seams.
