Verse 1

The Thunder rolls out.
As you close up my mouth.
So I can see I've lost integrity.
My heart is black and white. You make it bright.
And color me in.

Chorus

And even though I'm slipping off the edge.
And I know that you would catch me in the end.
I'm gonna try with no more pretends.
To hold to you... To hold to you

Verse 2

My heart is shaken,
And I'm falling down.
But I will fall, where you are found.
And I'm pressing on and striving to,
Where I can live and give to you.

Chorus

Bridge

And this is a plea from my selfish misery.
Rescue my soul, from my captivity.
This is a plea from my selfish misery.
Be Still and know, only you can save me alone.
