Don't know who's right

I don't know who's lying

But if you stay, we'll work it out alone

I know what I want

That's what I'm saying

I want you here with me, so don't go home

Would you stay with me after dawn

If I say to you I was wrong?

I can stay with you for so long

Would you stay with me after dawn?

I don't know at night

Is this a trial?

But I know where you should be all the time

I know what I said, I wasn't lying

But if you do, you won't be in my life

Will you stay with me after dawn

If I say to you I was wrong?

I can stay with you for so long

Will you stay with me after dawn?

You can say we didn't have a fight

And we can go on all through the night

Why must I stay away?

And in the morning everything's the same

And we can go on for another day

Why must I stay away so long?

Why must I stay away?

What they had said

Don't listen to them

Because if you do, you won't be in my life

I don't know who's right

I don't know who's lying

Just stay with me and everything's alright

Would you stay with me after dawn

If I say to you I was wrong?

I can stay with you for so long

Will you stay with me after dawn
