We've gone down this way before

And we know each step in time

I tried going the other way

Knowing what I'd find

I've had some time to think it over

Some time now I'd have to say it's over

Try to get myself away

From holding on to yesterday

I think I'm gonna say it today

The time is here

You know me anyway

You've seen it in my eyes

Tell me to go away

I'm on my way outside

I've had some time to think it over

Sometime I'd have to say it's over

Try to get myself away

But holding on to yesterday

I think I'm gonna say it today

The time is here

Just one more day away

Makes me feel alive

You're just a memory,

And time is on my side

I've had some time to think it over

Sometime I'd have to say it's over

Try to get myself away

From holding on to yesterday

I think I'm gonna say it today

The time is here
