Me and Bob

-----

Busted flat in Baton Rouge, waitin' for a train,
Feeling nearly faded as my jeans,
Bobby flagged a diesel down, just before it rained,
Took us all the way to New Orleans.

I took my harp on out of my dirty red bandana,
I was blowin' sad while Bobby sang the blues,
With them windshield wipers slappin' time, Bobby
clappin' hands,
We finally sang near ever song that driver knew.

Nothin' ain't worth nothin' but it's free.
Feelin' good was easy, Lord, when Bobby sang the
blues.
Feelin' good was good enough for me, good enough
for me, Bobby McGee.

From the coal mines of Kentucky to the California sun,
Bobby shared the secrets of my soul,
standing right beside me, Lord, in everything I done,
Bobby's body kept me from the cold.

Then somewhere near Salinas, Lord, I let her slip away,
Lookin' for that home, I hope she finds,
And I'd trade all my tomorrows for a single yesterday
Holding Bobby's body close to mine.

Freedom's just another word for nothin' left to lose.
Nothin' was all she left for me.
Feelin' good was easy, Lord, when Bobby sang the
blues.
Feelin' good was good enough for me, good enough
for me, Bobby McGee.

Nothin' ain't worth nothin' but it's free.
Feelin' good was easy, Lord, when Bobby sang the

blues.

Feelin' good was good enough for me, good enough
for me, Bobby McGee
