Gonna see some good times
Gonna get to ring that bell
Gonna see some good times
Sometimes you make up
For when I'm not feeling well
I must be due some great times
'Cause right now
'Cause right now I feel like hell

Never trust a woman
Who wears her pants too tight
Never trust a woman
Who wears her pants too tight
She might love you tomorrow
But she'll be gone tomorrow night

I say, come tomorrow, I'll get my pay
And I'm gonna leave this town
Come tomorrow, I'll get my pay
And I'm gonna leave this fucking town
She don't really love me
Ain't no reason to stick around

Gonna see some good times
Gonna get to ring that bell
Gonna see some good times
Sometimes you make up
For when I'm not feeling well
I must be due some great times
But if they don't come, if they don't come
If they never come around, what the hell
