

Grateful Dead "Supplication"

Well, dizzy ain't the word for the way that you making me feel now

Well, I need some indication, Lord, that all of this is real now

You got to tell me girl

And I've heard it said, "There's something wrong in my head, now"

You got to help me, girl, could it be infatuation or am I just being misled?

Little bolt of inspiration, the way you strike me now

It's sparking my imagination, you got to like now

You're causing me such excitation, don't you like it now

You got to hear my supplication, got to hear me now

A little bolt of inspiration, the way you strike me now

It's sparking my imagination
