"Genocide"

Close your eyes fall into the arms of Morpheus
Come below with me into my kingdom
You will fall
Fall from your dream in a bloodstream
Fall from life into my paradisaal genocide
Visualize the darkest world of morbidity
My paradise, a realm of lust and perversion
Close your eyes sleep forever
Close your mind, explore
With the angels
Crying, weeping, dying
As we go to war, against your soul
Blood stained is your soul as it is lost
To my sinful lust
And bleeding you shall die so close
Your eyes and fall
