Hatred stronger than ever
Since you turned your back at me
How can I put my trust
In someone false like you
Blinded by the tales, I chose my path
No more lustful living, I changed my ways
And before I knew it, I was enslaved
Under the sign of christ, I fell from grace
Not a sign of proof, only the words
Spoken from the preachers, the selfelected
Seeing sin in everything to gain their grip
I must find a way to get me out of the light
You don't need to save me
Ill save myself
Don't try to persuade me
My life is Mine
Hatred became my fate
Under the sign of christ I fell from grace
Blinded by the tales
I must find a way to get me out of the light
You don't need to save me
Ill save myself
Don't try to persuade me
My life is Mine
