Pain and death spread everywhere
Foul disease hangs in the air
Corpses rot live to die
Fate selects with closed eyes Black Death rules the country and rages through the land
Victims drop like flies, there seems to be no end
Cities turn to ghost towns awaiting what will come People froze with fear, nowhere you could run laughing, Crying
Tumbling, Dying
Fighting, Abandoning
Surrender to your fate

[Chorus:]

Black death - walks behind
Black death - in every smile
Black death - at your side
Black death - you can't hide

Some are rich, some are poor
Kings and Queens Beggars Fools

As they die they're all the same
Fate is cruel but who's to blame Black Death rules the country, there is no good and bad
There is no strong or mighty, all must bow their head
Everybody is equal as they lose their breath
There is no salvation, there is only death
The reaper's time now and here
A skinless smile spreading fear
Bony hands reach you
It is the end, your life is through Pray to god for mercy, the reaper laughs aloud
Blood drips from his scythe as he cuts the victims down
Witches call for Satan, priests raise their hands
Strong believes must fall, the reaper rules the land
