My king won another crown - for Scotland's pride
That is what we thought but we were not right
Now he rules in London - a faceless king
Sold his ancient kingdom to the enemy

Five laws
You gave at Perth
Betray the rights
We gained by birth

[Chorus:]
Cry,cry,cry,cry for freedom

The heritage of centuries - you did betray

The blood of Bruce flowing in your veins
How could you give away - what Braveheart died for Freedom may be lost now and forever more

You gain a crown
We pay the price
You think you rule
But we will rise
