Stranger tell me the story behind
How my mother died as I was a child
My father was killed in a fight till death
He gave me this sword with his last breath

This foolish dwarf, it seems so clear
Can't forge the steel 'cause he's full of fear
Only the one who feels no terror
Can forge the steel and create it anew

Steel by steel the hammer falls
Shaping me a deadly sword
With fire and power I do well
I curse it with the magic spell

Fire, fire, blow on the blaze
Smelt the splinters of my steel
Glorious sword, now you're fixed in the hilt
And I spread out to kill the dragon

Steel by steel the hammer falls
Shaping me a deadly sword
With fire and power I do well
I curse it with the magic spell

Steel by steel the hammer falls
Shaping me a deadly sword
With fire and power I do well
I curse it with the magic spell
