I notice me -- I notice you
I see a lot of things that neither of us do I notice me -- I notice you too & there are simple things that we don't even try anymore
There's a way out of this Beat the time & everytime I turn around we got some clever way to put each other down & everytime I turn away
I can't decide if I should go or should I stay with you there's a way outa this Beat the time
We can't leave these problems behind so close the door & open your mind
