Emotions rushing over me
Iâ€™m wide awake but I canâ€™t see
I donâ€™t know what to feel
Cause my emotions canâ€™t agree
Darkness descending over me
Sometimes it feels theyâ€™re after me
Loneliness is filled with silence
The clock is ticking inside my head
Why am I lonley, why am I here
Iâ€™m just a human that no longer cares
Iâ€™m afraid of the life
Gimme something I can trust
When I see what a child can do
I donâ€™t want any and I donâ€™t want you
Why put a child into this morbid world
When we dance deeper into darkness and get more disturbed
Have you felt the pain inside
Dragged you down, made you cry
Why am I lonley, why am I here
Iâ€™m just a human that no longer cares
Why is everyone judging me
Look at yourself before you critisize me
I donâ€™t care what you say
Iâ€™ll just hate more every day
I donâ€™t care how much you wonder
I donâ€™t care if the world goes under
I wonâ€™t listen to anyone
It just waste, waste of my time
I donâ€™t care about the war
Let them kill, let them crawl
Iâ€™m fed up with this world
We are turning into the void
