You look at me and I wanna take a bite
I look at you and I don't have to think twice

Cause you're as sweet as sin and I know the trouble I'm in
You're as sweet as sin and I wanna taste again
Candy - I'm happy for a while
Candy - if only you're smile would not melt away

You're bad for me but I feel good right now I'd walk away if I knew just how Cause you're as sweet as sin and I know the trouble I'm
in
You're as sweet as sin so let it all begin
Candy - I'm happy for a while
Candy - if only you're smile would not melt away

We had romance and long, long fights
But I wanted more and I felt it was my right

That was when the door slowly closed
And that strange expression on your face just froze

Candy - I'm happy for a while
Candy - if only you're smile would not melt away
