I can't seem to
Forgive or forget you
And when I try
You see every second guess
In my eyes

This is my human condition
Human condition

You know full well
You made life on earth
Life in hell
But your pride and obstinence
Refuse to give up
The rightest thing

This is your human condition
Human condition
Human condition

The shortest thing can feel long
The rightist thing can end up wrong
But I love
When it happens to me
Cause I've learned to find comfort in irony

This is my human condition
Human condition
Human condition
