

Graveblankets "Knoxville Girl"

Visit "Knoxville Girl" on MotoLyrics.com

I met her at a walmart
She was tryin' to find a spare part
And I thought I could help find it
She said she just moved into town
With a smile that turned into a frown
And she grabbed my hand and held on too tight

Knoxville girl

She said she was a kentucky girl
Who wanted to see more of the world
And there was desperation in her eyes
I asked if I could drive her home
Cause her car broke down she was all alone
But she said she didn't have a place to stay

Knoxville girl

She moved in with me
And we were both so happy
Until the day I happened upon the news

That told of the knoxville murder armed robbery

She needed me for cover
So she acted like my lover
But I knew she'd soon be through with me
I confronted her with the facts
The smile on her face, well it fell like an axe
And that's when the bullets began to fly

Knoxville girl

Visit Graveblankets page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.