When did you decide everyone was out to get you?
Who on earth told you that lie?
You always want to shoot first and leave out questions
all together
And then drive off in your hearse

It's my turn to shoot you down
And watch you squirm and cry out loud
Shoot you down
Shoot you down
Shoot you down

You always think you fool the world noone can keep up with you
You think you're such a smartass girl
And I'm your comrade with two blind eyes
Well I think you've just been had

It's my turn to shoot you down
And watch you squirm and cry out loud

You pushed me and then pushed me some more
And started a war
And now I don't know what we're fighting for
So I'm showing myself the way to the door

It's my turn to shoot you down
And watch you squirm and cry out loud
It's my turn to shoot you down
Shoot you down
Shoot you down
