

Graveblankets

"Western Medicine"

Visit "Western Medicine" on MotoLyrics.com

I've forgotten why I came here but I know why I stayed
I came to love this dirty town and it's passion plays
But when you relive the same bloody war
Even with different actors you start to want something more

Western medicine

I've forgotten how I lived with my disease
I've forgotten how I lived could you remind me please Remember when you found me in that silly cage?
You opened the door and said I never really had to stay

Western medicine

It's so simple that's it's stupid, it's so simple: love!

Visit Graveblankets page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.