Intro: rza/rzarector

(mommie)

Let's do it come on, it's over now see

Now you don't know if you're feeling mommie, mommie, mommie

See we the people we gotta come together for a common cause

You gotta recognize... life... see, sometimes... i would say

Sometimes...

Chorus: all

Mommie, what's a gravedigga? x5 (gravediggaaazz)

Mommie, what is a gravedigga?

Verse 1: rza/rzarector

Yo, i had a nightmare!

That i slept for a light year

4000 roaches have crawled inside my right ear

When i found myself trapped inside of a circle

Surrounded by 40 wicked women who was all dressed in purple

They promised they would harm the nations with the abominations

For the rotations, vaxinations of intoxications

It was at that moment, i realized who was my opponent

It was god for made god he said he wanted to slay god

He put his wrath in the circle for the 29th chapter

Said they wanted to fracture my skull, so he could capture my soul

My body got drawn to a life less deformed

And by essence tried to squeeze to the crack of dawn

But i got trapped in a void, watching now i'm paranoid

Living noise floating in space like asteroids

The pain in my head, was excruciating

It must have been at dusk they had me illuinating,

Now i was facing satan and he was the ----- reagan

Of of who killed kennedy, the true identity of the holy ghost trinity

The lack of masculinity
About to lose it, but i fashed back the blunts dipped in honey
>from the dirty tombs that i mastered when i learned 120
About who's the original vile chemical father
The king of civilitation, the universal author
It was me, it struck me, and caused me to figure
I'm alive in my self, that i'm a gravedigga!

Chorus: all

Mommie, what's a gravedigga? x4

Verse 2: too poetic/grymreaper

On a cold night in january, foes invaded my sanctuary
With the arch-bishop of canterburry
To cause confusion, they drugged my plasma solution
Till i saw visions and illusions
My body hit the bottom of a dark black pit
Full of snakes with poisonous lips swimming in piss
The spell was atrotious, i stood still Getting vexed, ferocious and ready to kill
My soul was a vast inovation of strife
Like joe vouldalast, temptation of christ
As i acknowledged the blackness, survival tactics
Got acted, my soul with a full metal jacket
Interogated by jinns, who penetrated my skin
With pins to learn the secret of the grym
The fire that burns in my bosom like jeremiah
Sparks through the dark for those who enquire:

Chorus: all

Mommie, what's a gravedigga? x4

Verse 3: frukwan/gatekeeper

As you rotate on your axis, vaporize the sky
Make it drop like solar faxes
Feel amongst the solids, liquids, and the gases
Said he built the heat as the rain turned to acid Yo, we came strung simulated with the drugs i'm the potion
Swelling, my brain cells constantly in motion
I charge like a lightning bolt caught in the note
A spinning black pole swallowed me like a throat
Yo, it felt like a prison, the walls was a living organism
That had mad curves like the wisdom, but it wasn't
And knowledge is the key to confucion

Man made pollution, child i was abused with intrusion
Tossed in a hole, 6 years old, "let me go!"
At 12 i was a student and wrote Cause now my degrees are passed to my youngest seed
And when she stepped to my queen, she said:

Chorus: all outro: prince paul/undertaker

Mommie, what's a gravedigga? x5 walking in the shadows you realize Mommie, what is a gravedigga? that life is nothing but a form of
Yo, i had a nightmare! [echoes] animated death
[echoes]
Gatekeep [echoes]
