I came, led by the stars
Spirits of the damned draw me near Mayhemed winds showed me the way
And now i stay here, born from the wolf
Scream of pain sounds in Darkness
I draw my claws in wall of fog
I scrape, scream, blood covered my scars my fangs tear the gates to Abyss
Impure spirits, you showed me the way
And now my blood becomes the key
I open this last gate
The Gate to the Kingdom of Darkness
Black wind of the dead
Inflamed my eyes to red
My brothers, wolves, servants of the night
They came from the forest
Burning eyes among the Darkness
Jaws thirsty for the blood, raised to moon
Hired, longing and fear
This is the last night and the dawn will never come

Curse me, my brothers
Because I lead you to death
Salvation for mayhemed souls
Souls of sons of the night in wolves bodies
We've been always and we'll be forever
Tonight we'll die and the next night we will come from beyond the gates of Kingdom of Darkness
Gods of Darkness, awoken by our sacrifice
Beast of gloom, spirits of fear
Triumph of unlife's Powers
Banners of the dead smeared in blood!
Black is the ultimate colour
Darkness is the only end
Evil is the right reaction
Death is the only mercy...
