[Music and Lyrics by Graveworm]

[Refrain]

A wind of powers blows from the sky
Raging fury, the enemy arrives
Riding straight with hate in their soul
PAIN - Renaissance in blood
Blood will flow, screams in the sky
Fire enlightens the blackest night
The gates of the damned opened their arms
DIE - Renaissance in blood

[Refrain]

A field of frozen tears remains
Darkness reigns the crumbling sky
The storm of death screams for revenge
FEAR - Renaissance in blood
Shadows and dust lies on the ground
Across the sky they are flying high
And soon the world will cease to be
DIE - Renaissance in blood
