Step into the light
Illuminating you for all to see
Come into my sight
Empty handed not for me
It's in your hands, my one demand
No one can tell, the sins I need to sell
I'm still sipping from your well
Reflecting back to me
Your perfection in my eye
Hurt me, break me, take me
Your wanting, your watching, your haunting me
It's in your mind, no one can find
No one can hear, the words I want to fear
I'm still sipping from your well

Reflecting back to me
Your perfection in my eye
Hurt me, break me, take me
It's all of your light
Shadow lifting falling down to me
Becoming your light
Empty, melting all over you
It's in your hands, my one demand
No one can tell, the sins I need to sell
I'm still sipping from your well
Reflecting back to me
Your perfection in my eye
Hurt me, break me, fuck me
