Standin' on the corner of Royal Street, on a Sunday afternoon Out there by the old A & P barefoot in the sun in June.
I saw her playin' with the big brass band with old Gate Junior on guitar I saw her playin' with John and Mooney too uptown at Maddigan's Bar.

[REFREIN:]

Dashboard Lisa, wash away your sins
let them go down the drain Everytime you move your dirty little hands takes away our fears and our pain

[INTRO] 2x

I said "hello" to her out there on the street

Boys, I looked into here eyes
She said that she knew Tom Robin Oh, I believed it was a lie But how can New Orleans be so good To a Lucky Strike smoking queen
With a rip in her dress and a dirty toes Livin' life like a dream

[REFREIN:]

Dashboard Lisa, wash away your sins
let them go down the drain
