You left in the morning
You left without a word
Did you get what you came for
Is this what I deserve
Oh I know the silence was the loudest thing I ever heard

[Chorus]

Where do we stand, what am I supposed to do Give me the clearest indication, that I am not alone with you Reach out your hand, in a world I thought I knew I need the clearest indication, the clearest indication from you

Did we have all we wanted

And let it slip away in time
Like a country divided
Fifty-one to forty-nine, years ago
We just can't seem to make up our mind

[Chorus]

[Bridge]

Times like these its hard to see
With any kind of clarity
What's the point of wondering anymore
So much I just can't figure out
I'd love to know without a doubt for sure, for sure

[Chorus]
