"Fire And Brimstone"

All the words have been said
No new visions or chapters to be read
Every song has been sung
Tolling bells have been rung
No more babies can be born
Vows of oath can't be sworn
The last bent knee has repent
Lightning from the sky has been sent
I am coming for you
Soon you will know
Everybody has a chance
Fire and brimstone
All the wars have been fought
No criminals to be caught
Complete lies have entirely spread
No more graves to bury the dead
