"Forever In Darkness"

You will hear in the distance
The children are whining
Oh how i cherish the thoughts
When the sun stops shining
The streets will grow silent
And they all go down
The grave how she burns
As i look into the ground

Forever in darkness away from rain
Forever in darkness to wear the chains

Scarlet beast shall rise
And takes a deep breath
There is no heart
Under her velvet chest
Oh how sweet is death
There's no more there's no less
But for those who deny
They run to the hills and hide
