Please fly, i'll let you go
Please fly, i love you so
To hold you tight, picks apart a rose Please fly, i'll cry if you don't.
Where you are, dear, i'm still close
So go on, and be the reason why i love you
Inside i know
As the tides roll, the winds blow you far from me
As the tides roll, the winds will blow, your love is coming
Back to me, back to me.
First time, i saw your eyes, i could see behind them, you could see right through mine
So when you leave to fight your fight you've got my heart, my soul, so please fly, fly Cause where you are, dear, i'm still close
So go on, and be the reason why i love you
Inside i know
As the tides roll, the winds blow you far from me
As the tides roll, the winds will blow, your love is
coming
Back to me, back to me.
The shores, the tides, they're like you and i (you're coming back to me)
We share a sky, you and i so please fly
As the tides roll, the winds blow you far from me
As the tides roll, the winds will blow, your love is
coming
Back to me, back to me.
Back to me,
You're coming home.
