There was a time when love was blind and maybe I was blind too

I couldn't see that we were lovers I had never touched you

I seemed so certain that we'd only ever be just good friends

Woke up one morning I refused to let you out of my head

And I still want you, every time I see you again

Chorus:

I still want you

(I'm dreaming think I'm crazy, maybe you can save me Probably 'cause you tell all the things I don't do)

I still want you

(I'm dreaming think I'm crazy, maybe you can save me
Probably 'cause you tell all the things I don't do)

Don't leave me now I'd be so lost so indigo without you

I can't survive with only memories to see me through

You're all I need, don't cross me now that I'm high

You're all I need now, you're all I need now

And still I want you, every time I see you again

Chorus

6x:

I still, I still... everytime that I see you
